SEPTEMBER

VENUE CHANGE, INVITE ONLY MEETING NIGHT, NOT TO BE MISSED!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

6 September - MONTHLY MEETING Held at Penrite Oil, 88 Lewis Road, Wantirna, 8.00pm.

We have been given the privilege of being able to hold our meeting at Penrite's Lane 88 Auto Museum. The Dymond family will give us a talk and tour of their latest set-up and museum. For those of you who have been to the last meeting we attended at their old premises you will know that this is a meeting not to be missed. Please bring your friends and family for this one off special meeting night as we need to have at least 50 in attendance! The Austin Car Club will be joining us on the night also.

For further information – call Hugh – 0417 119 790.

Saturday - 10 September - Rokeby Farmers Market and 'Big Shed'.

We will meet at Stamford Hotel car park at 8.30 am and depart at 8.45 am. We will travel along the Monash Freeway towards Warrigal and turn-off at the turn-off at Robin Hood Hotel corner heading for Neerim South. Watch carefully for the next turn-off for Rokeby, arriving at approximately 10.00 am. Members may like to go directly. The monthly Farmers Market is held on the oval adjacent to the Community Centre. We will have parking at the rear of the tennis courts, 23 Herman Street. Rokeby entering the property via the gateway. This is Eric Bishop's workshop and where the new home for NATIONAL SPARES will be located shortly.
